

ARTILLERY USED TO QUELL STRIKE

Thirty Persons Killed and One Hundred Wounded at Novgorod, Russia.

CANNON FIRED INTO MOB

Troops by thousands Guard
Rome from Strikers—The Holland Strike.

Berlin, April 8.—A dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from St. Petersburg, dated yesterday, says thirty persons have been killed and that one hundred were injured during labor disturbances near Nishni-Novgorod.

HAS CHANGED ASPECT.

Rome, April 8.—The aspect of Rome was completely changed early today. The gay, crowded city of yesterday seemed dead. No cabs passed through the streets and even the street cars, which ran at long intervals, were escorted by police and were almost empty, as the people feared to ride in them on account of the threats of the strikers. The shops were open, but the shutters were up, as the proprietors intended to be ready for any eventuality. They were apprehensive of rioting and feared, as on other occasions, that their windows would be smashed.

The whole city was occupied by troops. Detachments of cavalry were posted on the squares and special details of soldiers and police were stationed around the Vatican so as to prevent any attempt against the papal palace.

Foreigners continue to leave Rome, but many of them cannot get away, as they are far from the railroad station, no cabs are obtainable, and the hotel omnibuses can carry only a limited number of passengers.

If the strike continues and all the foreigners leave the city, it is said that the boarding-house keepers alone will lose on an average $18,000 daily.

Unimportant encounters between the strikers and troops took place during the morning, the former wishing to hold meetings, which were forbidden, or reach the center of the city, but the strikers were easily dispersed by cavalry charges.

During the morning an attempt was made by strikers to overthrow a street car, but it failed.

PILGRIMS MIXED IN MOB.

Five hundred French pilgrims arrived here today and had some startling experiences. They got off at a station on the outskirts of Rome, so as to avoid going through the city, but there were no cabs and all kinds of wagons and carts were hired to take the pilgrims' baggage. The men and women of the party arrived at the Garibaldi bridge just as a detachment of cavalry charged a mob, and a scene of indescribable confusion ensued. With screams and shouts, the pilgrims in their efforts to escape were scattered in all directions.

About the middle of the day the strikers succeeded in gathering in threatening numbers on the Corso Vittorio Emanuele, almost in the center of the city, and detachments of troops charged, fired three volleys and dispersed them. About a dozen men were reported to have been wounded.

The officials reported that order had been completely re-established since noon, but Rome was still occupied by the military forces and the general strike continued. Many strikers were arrested during the day.

The government has determined to have a sufficient force of troops on hand to maintain order under any circumstances and has issued instructions to send ten more battalions of troops to Rome. They will arrive here today.

The pope was much interested in the particulars of the strike. He said: "It is a sword with two edges." He also expressed sorrow at the damage done the interests of the city and also because the strike interferes with the religious ceremonies of Easter.

Instructions were issued to close the churches wherever disturbances occurred, and the prelates of St. Peter's met during the day to decide whether or not to suspend the Easter services, fearing that the strikers may enter St. Peter's and provoke a riot.

TO ORDER GENERAL STRIKE.

Amsterdam, April 8.—The Workmen's Defense committee has decided to proclaim a general strike of all the trades throughout the country.

BAKERS' STRIKE A FIZZLE.

The Hague, April 8.—The proposed bakers' strike in sympathy with the general water and land transportation strike has thus far proved a failure. The bakers are continuing work under military protection. The railroad service is gradually resuming its normal conditions. The Workmen's Defense committee has offered to call off the strike if the proposed "tyrannical" antistrike laws are abandoned.

RAILROAD MEN RESUME.

Rotterdam, April 8.—Ninety per cent. of the employees of the Netherlands railroad have resumed work. Only shunters and pointsmen are now needed to re-establish the complete service.

MARINES MOBILIZED.

London, April 8.—A special dispatch from Amsterdam says the government of the Netherlands has ordered the mobilization of all the marines within twenty-four hours and that three warships at Den Helder have been ordered to be in readiness for immediate service.

About 10,000 men are idle in Amsterdam alone. No flour is being delivered there and bread and other food waggons are escorted by mounted troops.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER OCCURS IN VAN WERT

Charles Johns Found Dying on Street—Missing Brother-in-Law Suspected.

Charles Johns was found lying mortally wounded on Main street in Van Wert, Ohio, at 10:30 o'clock last night. He was removed to his home, where he died, an hour afterward without regaining consciousness or giving any information which might lead to the identification of the murderer. Charles Richards, whose wife is Johns' sister, is missing from his home and circumstances indicate that he might know something about the murder. Johns had a bitter quarrel with Richards in the latter's house a short time before the wounded man was found on the sidewalk, near the Richards home and Richards has not been seen since, though the authorities have been searching for him. Johns was shot, but the report of the pistol was not heard by any person so far as can be learned. He was employed as a salesman in the furnishing establishment of Fronsfield & Co. and was a married man. Richards is a large man and weighs 195 pounds. He has dark hair and wears a mustache and is about forty years old. His left thumb was cut off at the second joint. He wore a black derby hat when last seen.

STEAMER IS RAMMED WHILE AT ANCHOR

Atlas Liner Allegheny Badly Damaged in New York Harbor—No One Lost.

New York, April 8.—The Atlas line steamer Allegheny from Port Limon, Costa Rica, was badly damaged in the harbor of New York today as the result of a collision with the British steamer Joseph Merryweather, bound out for Baltimore and Cork, Ireland. The Allegheny was struck on the starboard side and a huge hole torn in her. She took water rapidly and soon her bow was under water. She lay near Liberty Island. The passengers, many of them in a panic, were rescued by a passing tug and brought to the city. The crew remained on board, gathered at the stern, which was not submerged.

The collision occurred during a thick fog and it is said the Allegheny was anchored at the time, waiting for clearer weather to make her way up the harbor to her pier. The ship's water-tight compartments, six in number, kept her from sinking entirely.

The Allegheny sailed from Port Limon on March 30 with thirty-four passengers on board. She was built at Glasgow in 1894. She was 310 feet long, 38.2 feet beam and 23 feet deep. She registered 1,606 tons net.

THE PRESIDENT WILL DISAPPEAR

He Enters Yellowstone Park
This Afternoon for a Long Stay

TRAIN REACHES MONTANA

For the Next Two Weeks Little
Will be Heard of the Nation's Chief.

Livingston, Mont., April 8.—President Roosevelt will enter Yellowstone park some time this afternoon and for the next sixteen days the outside world will know very little of his doings. His special train arrived here at 9 o'clock this morning and after a fifteen minute stop, during which the president greeted a large crowd, started for Gardner, which is the entrance to the park. He is due there at 12:30 p. m. The president will take luncheon on the train and finish up some necessary work. Then, accompanied by John Burroughs and a detachment of cavalry, he will plunge into the park for what he hopes to be two weeks of rest. The remainder of the party will live on the train at Cinnabar, three miles from Gardner.

THE FEES EXCEED THE OFFICERS SALARIES

Allen County Has a Profit on Public Business—News of the Court House.

County Treasurer Rohan today filed his report of fees turned in by the county officers during the quarter ending March 31, 1903. The total was $6,188.42, the sheriff leading with $3,014.47. Then came the clerk with $1,857, the recorder with $1,759.45, and the auditor with $556.95. To pay the salaries of the county officers required $1,803.90 for the sheriff, $1,775 for the auditor, $1,049.95 for the clerk and $875 for the recorder, making a total of $5,503.85, which leaves a credit to the county of $684.57 after paying the salaries of the officers named. Under the new law the recorder hereafter will receive 30 per cent of the fees in excess of his salary. If that law had been in effect last quarter Recorder Gillett would have received an additional fee of 30 per cent of $884.45, the amount of his excess, or $265.33, at which rate making quite a respectable addition in course of a year.

NOTES.
G. W. McAllister has filed his final report as executor of the estate of Martha A. Hale and asks to be discharged.

Barbara Thullen was granted a divorce today from Adam Thullen on her cross-complaint, the original plaintiff failing to appear.

The damage suit of Noah A. Walker vs. the Fort Wayne traction company and the damage suit of Henry W. Fry vs. the Fort Wayne gas company have both been venued to Wells county.

The damage suit of George Young vs. the Van Arman-Knott company has been dismissed in the superior court.

Judge Heaton yesterday afternoon divorced Grace Glenn from Walter Glenn and performed a similar office for Mattie Spielman, who was divorced from Victor Spielman.

In the matter of the Vanderau ditch appeal from the commissioners' court, Judge Heaton found for the appellants, holding that the proposed ditch was not a public utility.

Deputy Sheriff Reichelderfer this morning arrested Dr. George Smith, a dentist employed at the Globe dental parlors, for practicing dentistry without a license. The affidavit was filed by Dr. Mason, of the dental association, in Tancey's v. Dr. Smith promptly gave bond in the sum of $100, with Henry M. Williams as surety.

This was bill day at the commissioners' court, but considerable other business was transacted between bills. John Cavalier, failing to qualify and Squire Felger, the hold-over justice, resigning, left a vacancy in the judicial branch of the Lake township administration which was filled this morning by the appointment of Frank F. Newcomer, who will dispense justice at Lib during the next four years. The Indiana and Ohio Traction company also filed their construction bond with the commissioners this morning, which bond was approved. In the circuit court a divorce was granted to Sophia Smith from George J. Smith. The plaintiff was also awarded the custody of their children.

Mackinac Island, Mich., April 8.—The bodies of Captain Henry Hartwell and his son, Alva Hartwell, were found on the beach of Round Island today. It is thought that while they were returning from Mackinac Island to their home on Boile Island their sailboat was wrecked by the fierce gale Monday afternoon.

TESTIMONY IN FIGHT FOR FAIR MILLIONS

Important Matters Brought by Testimony of the Frenchman, Lucien Mas.

New York, April 8.—The hearing on the will of the late Charles L. Fair, who was killed in an automobile accident in France last August, was resumed today. Mrs. Hannah Nelson, of Newmarket, N. J., mother of Mrs. Fair, seeks to show that Mr. Fair died before his wife.

Lucien Mas, the Frenchman who testified yesterday that when he reached the scene of the accident he found Mr. Fair dead and Mrs. Fair breathing, was again on the witness stand. Mas was questioned about an interview he had with M. Picard, a French secret agent, regarding the accident. Mas said he had refused to tell Picard who was with him and where he had been when he witnessed the accident, because Mas and his friend Moranne had been to Deauville with women and did not want their wives to know about it.

Mas said he had not described the accident to M. Picard differently from his description at this hearing. When counsel for Mrs. Nelson objected to the cross-examination as to what time Mas boarded a train after witnessing the accident, opposing counsel said it was most important as it "shows Mas was not at the place at all."

WILL CAPITALIZE AT HALF MILLION

New Heating Company to Begin Construction of Its System at Once.

The signing of the heating franchise by Mayor Berghoff shortly before noon today was the signal for an instant renewal of activities upon the part of the promoters of the enterprise, who will at once proceed to complete their organization. It was stated today that the company would probably be capitalized at $500,000. At least half this sum will be expended during the present summer, with the remaining quarter of a million held in reserve for future extensions to the system.

G. W. Beers, Louis Fox, S. M. Foster, Charles McCulloch and W. F. Breen will leave tomorrow for Scranton and Wilkesbarre, Pa., to inspect two heating plants which have been in successful operation for many years and which are understood to be the largest central station systems in the country. The promoters say the work of construction in Fort Wayne will be commenced at once and that inside of thirty days it is hoped to have the indications of activity plainly visible in the way of the construction of a big power station and the laying of pipes and conduits. Unless unforeseen delays should arise in the securing of proper material the company will have its plant in operation in time to supply heat to a large section of the downtown business district by next winter.

J. E. McElfick, an eastern heating expert, with years of experience and carefully schooled in the science of heating systems, is at work upon plans and estimates for the downtown district, and his office is temporarily in the suite of rooms occupied by Mr. Beers in the Hamilton bank building. The company will shortly open an office of its own. Mr. McElfick is now making estimates of the radiation required for the district along Calhoun, Main and Columbia streets, and as rapidly as possible will extend his work to include the district between the railroads from Clay street to Fairfield avenue. This, however, does not mean that this is to be the limits embraced by the company. Mr. McElfick will be glad to talk with property owners and give an estimate upon the amount of radiation required to properly heat any given building, either business or residence.

ELEVEN KILLED IN WIND STORM

Tornado Sweeps Through an Alabama Town and Does Great Damage.

FOUR INJURED WILL DIE

Hanceville and Country Around Suffers from the Work of the Wind.

Hanceville, Ala., April 8.—A tornado passed over Hopewell settlement, one and one-half miles north of here, at 2 o'clock this morning and as a result eleven persons are dead, four are fatally injured and a dozen are more or less seriously hurt, while the destruction to property is heavy.

The dead:
Henry McCoy and three children.
C. C. Oden and three children.
John Griffin, wife and son.
Fatally injured:
Two children of Henry McCoy and two children of C. C. Oden.
Seriously injured:
Mrs. Oden and child; Mrs. McCoy.

Among the less seriously hurt are R. G. Quick and family of five. The names of the other injured have not been ascertained. The storm came from the southeast and its roar was so terrific that it woke many people, some of whom fled from their houses in time to escape death by having the houses blown down on them.

Buildings were tossed about like paper boxes and several structures were blown a hundred yards or more. The body of McCoy, who was a prominent farmer, was blown 200 yards and landed in a sand pit.

FOUND SAFETY UNDER BED.

The house of Mrs. John Norton was blown down, but the family escaped by crawling under the bed, while the timber and brick fell on top of the bed, breaking the force of the fall. The houses of the Oden and Griffin families were smashed to splinters and it seems marvelous that any of their occupants escaped death. Trees were uprooted in all directions and many were blown across the Louisville and Nashville railroad track, delaying trains for a time. The roar of the storm was heard at Hanceville, where it awoke many people, but no damage was done here. As soon as the destruction wrought became known here rescuers hurried to the scene to give attention to the dead and wounded. The death list at noon stood at eleven, but it is possible that it may be larger, as some of the bodies found were blown some distance.

NEW CHALLENGER AGAIN SHOWS SPEED

Shamrock III. in a Good Wind Handily Outsails the Old Yacht.

Weymouth, England, April 8.—With club topsails set in a good breeze to fourteen-knot breeze off shore, promising fast racing and a thorough test both of speed and gear, the Shamrock III and the Shamrock I started today off down the wind for a leeward and windward trial. The Shamrock III was a good length ahead as the boats were sent off. She gathered way faster and was off with double that lead before the older boat had fairly started. Boats were run off and the Shamrock I drew into the wake of the up challenger, getting between her and the wind. This advantage enabled the old boat to draw up somewhat, but the challenger did not last and the challenger opened away fast and ran in such fashion as helped to dispel the doubts as to her speed when off the wind.

When the boats were three-quarters on the way to the Shambles lightship the wind drew more westerly and the Shamrock III had to run a course considerably more to the westward, throwing her stern as they luffed for the Shambles. The Shamrock I led round the lightship. The times were: Shamrock I, 10:45:02; Shamrock III, 10:45:26. Sheets were all home as they came on the wind and the challenger gained fast and a trifle freer went right past and to leeward of the older boat before they had gone a mile to windward.

After holding this tack for twenty minutes Shamrock III came about and passed wide across the bows of Shamrock I, and taking up a position ahead and wide to the windward, pointing higher and sailing faster, she gained on every mile. The freshening wind caused some sea as the boats beat back, but the challenger stood up well to the wind and took the seas easily. She again crossed the bows of Shamrock I as they beat into the bay.

The times as the yachts turned the Erin at the finish of the first round were: Shamrock III, 11:46:14; Shamrock I, 11:47:50.

The challenger gained therefore exactly two minutes on a seven miles beat to windward.

As the two yachts rounded the Erin spinners were set for the next run to the Shambles. Smarter work on board Shamrock I enabled her to make up twenty seconds of lost ground. They made fairly level racing down the wind, the challenger not gaining appreciably in the first couple of miles.

The wind held fresh and fairly steady, allowing an honest trial of speed. Both boats were equally served by the wind and sailing practically in the same water it took a little over fifty minutes to run the seven miles and the boats turned the Shambles on the second round as follows:

Shamrock III, 12:42:37; Shamrock I, 12:44:57.

All sheets were brought aboard again as the boats headed home, looking as though with the breeze more westerly they might fetch through. The challenger gradually increased the gap.

The yachts trimmed in as close as they could lie to a fine, steady breeze and both made short work of the journey, doing about twelve knots. Shamrock III pulled ahead the whole time, gaining fully three minutes from mark to mark. The yachts finished the second round as follows: Shamrock III, 1:23:35; Shamrock I, 1:33:58.

The boats were then sent off on another spinnaker run seaward. Shamrock III, which had a short lead in starting, widened the gap. About a mile from the Shambles the spinners were taken in and the two boats reached for the mark, which was turned on the third round as follows:

Shamrock III, 2:29:05; Shamrock I, 2:30:17.

This was a gain of about a minute for the new yacht in the seven miles. A couple of long tacks brought them home. It is too early to say and the challenger rapidly opened out a long lead, seemingly being well suited for the freshening wind. The times at the finish of the day's work were:

Shamrock III, 3:28:10; Shamrock I, 3:33:18.

The new boat had thus beaten Shamrock I four minutes over the last seven miles turn to windward.

The trials were regarded by experts as showing that Shamrock III is markedly superior to the old boat in fresher weather and more open water. In running off the wind in a light breeze Shamrock I was only some seconds a mile slower, but on the wind the challenger quite outclassed her.

BJORNSTJERNE'S FAVORITE IDEA.

Berlin, April 8.—Bjornstjerne Bjornson, the Norwegian dramatist, politician and writer, has two-thirds of a page of the Tageblatt today on one of his favorite ideas, an ethnological and political trust of all the Germanic people, in which he includes the United States, Germany, England, Austria, Scandinavia, Denmark, The Netherlands and Switzerland. Such an alliance, he claims, would impose peace on the world. Bjornson closes the development of his idea by a severe criticism of Prussia's treatment of the Danes, in Schleswig-Holstein, by trying to destroy their language and nationality.

NEW TRUSTEE IN TOWN.

James W. Sale, of Bluffton, who has just been appointed by Governor Durbine as a member of the board of trustees of the Indiana school for feeble-minded youth, is in the city this afternoon the guest of Ed M. Wilson. Mr. Wilson and Mr. Sale this afternoon made an inspection of the state institution and the farm, it being Mr. Sale's first visit to the school. Tomorrow the board will meet in regular session, and the reorganization will occur.

ACQUIRED A RESIDENCE.

Justice Skelton this afternoon married Charles A. Barton, of Edgerton, and Cora M. Darling, of Matthews, Ind. The parties applied for a license about March 30th, but none could be issued on account of the bride's non-residence. She at once took up her residence here and remained in the county the required thirty days. Today her father came up from Matthews to see that there was no further hitch in the nuptials.

Mrs. L. M. Paddock, who has been a patient at St. Joseph's hospital, returned to her home at Girard, Mich., today.

HOLDS LAW NOT CONSTITUTIONAL

Weekly Wage Act Declared by Indiana Supreme Court to be Invalid.

RULING ON TEST CASE

Laborer's Freedom to Make Contract Abridged Says
the Court.

(Special to the Sentinel.)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 8.—An decision handed down today the supreme court held the weekly wage law, enacted in 1899, to be unconstitutional.

The decision was made in the case of the state against the Republic Iron and Steel company, one of the constituent concerns of the great steel trust. The suit was brought in Delaware county, where the state won the suit in the circuit court.

The supreme court now reverses the decision of the lower court, holding that it is an act of a class that would deprive a person of life, liberty or property without due process of law and clearly in contravention of the constitution of the state. In this case, the court holds, a laborer would be deprived of liberty to contract to suit himself.

The law has not generally been enforced in the state, owing to the pendency of the test case just decided.

FATHER-IN-LAW OF EUROPE'S BIRTHDAY

King Christian, of Denmark, Celebrates His Eighty-Fifth Anniversary.

Copenhagen, April 8.—King Christian today celebrated his eighty-fifth birthday anniversary. He was in the best of health and was the recipient of very many congratulations and gifts. The members of the diplomatic corps were among those who called at the palace to offer their felicitations. United States Minister Swenson, as doyen of the corps, warmly congratulated the king in behalf of his colleagues and subsequently extended to his majesty the good wishes of President Roosevelt and the American people. The king expressed keen gratification and asked that his greetings be conveyed to President Roosevelt.

The king received ovations on his every appearance and made a speech from the balcony of the palace to thousands of people assembled on the piazza.

BLOOD CLOT CAUSED DEATH.

QUIET IN LOWELL.

Lowell, Mass., April 8.—There was no trace of last night's disturbance today when the Lawrence hosiery opened as usual. The ring spinners went to work, with the other operatives, numbering about three thousand in all. Some Greeks had gathered near the mill gate, but the police were on hand to prevent any trouble, but there was no demonstration. The board of arbitration will meet here tomorrow to investigate the strike and the dispute leading to it.

DEATH CLAIMS A PIONEER WOMAN

Mrs. Abraham Oppenheimer Succumbs to Paralysis—Mortuary Matters.

Mrs. Emma Oppenheimer, wife of Abraham Oppenheimer, and one of the oldest and most esteemed Jewish women of the city, died at midnight Tuesday night at the family home, 218 West Berry street. Mrs. Oppenheimer was 73 years of age, and her death was due to paralysis. Little more than a year ago Mrs. Oppenheimer was first stricken by the disease and for some time her condition was regarded as critical. Later there was an improvement, but a week ago there came a second stroke and from that time the aged patient declined gradually until the end came Tuesday night. All her immediate relatives were at her bedside when death marked the close of a long, active and most useful life.

Mrs. Oppenheimer was born in Honzollern, Hechingen, Prussia, but came to Fort Wayne sixty years ago. She was united in marriage in this city in 1845 to Abraham Oppenheimer, who with six children survives. The children are Mrs. Henry Stettner, of Toledo; Mrs. Joseph Wiler, of Logansport; Mrs. Herman Nathan, of Chicago; Rudolph Oppenheimer, of Galveston, Texas; Mrs. A. Guttmacher, of Baltimore; and Fred Oppenheimer, of this city. There are also three sisters and a brother—Mrs. Jacob August, of Topeka, Kan.; Mrs. Samuel Thanhauser, of Milwaukee; Mrs. M. Frank, of this city, and R. M. Epstein, of Chicago.

In the death of Mrs. Oppenheimer there passes from earth a noble woman whose every effort was hopeful, helpful and kindly, and whose life was a constant benediction to those about her. She was a charter member of Adath Veshalom congregation, and one of the founders of the Ladies' Hebrew Benevolent society, prominent in religious and charitable work, and her life was a constant effort to assist those about her. Hundreds of people who in past years have been the recipients of her generous benefactions and her unselfish helpfulness will realize a poignant sorrow in her death. The needy, the suffering and the distressed found no more helpful friend than this devoted Jewish woman, and her charitable sympathy blended with social and personal graces of exalted womanhood to constitute a life admirable in every purpose and lovable in every attribute.

The funeral services will be held from the residence Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rabbi Cohen officiating.

He located in Fort Wayne and for a time was employed upon the canal boat owned by the venerable Peter Veith. Later he was for ten years employed in the Pittsburg shops here. Twenty-eight years ago he located upon a farm in Abbot township. This was his home until three weeks ago, when he returned with his family to Fort Wayne. Surviving are the widow and six children—Joseph, John and Peter Bott, Mrs. Mary Hensler, Mrs. Louise Schenk and Mrs. Francis Buhr, all of this county. There are also two brothers, Urbine and C. Bott. HARRISON AGAIN WINS IN CHICAGO

Is Elected for the Fourth Time Mayor of the City by the Lake.

PLURALITY IS CUT DOWN

He Has a Margin of Less than 7,000—Republicans Cry Fraud in Count.

Chicago, April 8.—Carter H. Harrison was elected mayor of Chicago for a fourth term yesterday, defeating Graeme Stewart, the republican candidate, by a plurality of 6,943, according to the police returns. A heavy vote was polled, the total being 310,455—the largest vote ever cast in a mayoralty election in this city.

For city treasurer, Ernst Hummel,

Harrison, mayor (dem.)..... 6,943 Hummel, treasurer (dem.)..... 21,742 Bender, city clerk (rep.)..... 3,722 Smulski, city attorney (rep.)..... 8,710 Late last night the republican leaders announced that they had discovered many serious errors in the police returns, and they predicted that the official corrected figures would show the election of Stewart. It was claimed that the mistakes found would more than overcome Harrison's apparent lead.

In 1897 Mayor Harrison received a total vote of 144,046 and a plurality of 89,338; in 1899 a total vote of 146,042 and a plurality of 41,050; in 1901 a total vote of 156,952 and a plurality of 28,346; in 1903 a total vote of 308,455 and a plurality of 6,943.

SETTLED CLAIMS TO AVOID A SCANDAL

Drummer Who Jumped Bills Contracted Here Forced
by Capias Process.

Justice Skelton issued a capias against Charles B. Osler, a shoe drummer from the east, on complaint of Dr. C. E. Barnett and Ed Hagan, the barber. Osler was arrested by Deputy Reichelderfer in the Avenue hotel last night about 10 o'clock and after some plying fixed up the matter by paying the claims against him. Osler has been coming here for years and about three years ago brought with him a woman whom he introduced as his wife. After a few days at a hotel they took a room with Mr. Hagan, where they were known as Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Murray, of New York. A week or two later Mrs. Murray was delivered of a child, her alleged husband being out on the road at the time. He soon came in and after a few days' stay again went away, leaving the woman behind. When she got able to travel she left, saying that her husband would liquidate on his next trip in. Mr. Murray was not seen again by Hagan until last night. Meantime the people interested learned that the man's real name was Osler, that he had come here and that the woman was not his wife. Then the officers began laying for him and last night Mr. Hagan took the deputy into the hotel and introduced him to "Mr. Murray." The deputy stated his business and Osler was speedily convinced that the best thing he could do would be to settle. Accordingly the trio repaired to Justice Skelton's office, where the matter was adjusted. Osler was good-natured after the affair was over and said he could not afford to fight the case inasmuch as his paramour was the wife of a wealthy and prominent New York business man, and Mr. Hagan says she gave every indication of a woman of refined rearing.

JUSTICE COURT NOTES.
Justice Skelton yesterday heard the evidence in the case charging William Ulmer, a lad of 10, with assaulting William Grepke. A fine of $1 and costs was assessed and sentence suspended during good behavior. The juvenile row was for the purpose of settling a disputed point as to who is entitled to hold the pugilistic belt among the youngsters on St. Mary's avenue. At latest accounts Ulmer was still wearing the trophy. On a similar charge John Gutermuth, another lad, was acquitted.

George Haskell has filed an affidavit in Tancay's court charging John Bassett with assault and battery. Annie Marler filed affidavits in Strass' court yesterday charging Winnie Hamilton and Kate Sherber with provocation. No arrests have yet been made.

GAVE A FAREWELL SUPPER.

(Ft. Smith, Ark., News-Record.)
H. E. Culberson, who resigned the management of the local office of R. G. Dun & Co. on the first of the month, left Friday evening for his home in Fort Wayne, Ind., where he may go into business. Tuesday evening he was given a farewell supper at Mayo's by several of his most intimate friends. Those present, in addition to the guest of honor, were Ed Schrader, Robert Meek, Robert Dickens, Dr. A. G. Ragland and J. R. Elkins. The supper was one of the most elegant ones that has been spread at Mayo's and all present voiced their regret at the departure of Mr. Culberson in touching and heartfelt words. Mr. Culberson is a young man of great geniality and made a very large circle of friends and will be missed from our social circles. He is a business man of much ability and he enjoyed a high standing in commercial circles.

HE WANTS A WIFE.

The reputation of Humane Officer Schlaudroff as an all-around humanitarian has evidently gone abroad. His success in preserving and reuniting disrupted families has led one man, at least, to suppose that he would be the proper man to create new ones, and accordingly appointed the genial officer his matrimonial agent, with instructions to procure him a wife. The letter he wrote Mr. Schlaudroff is sensible, evidently honest and candid, to the point, and is as follows:

"April 6, 1903.—Mr. Schlaudroff:—I am a lone widower. Got a comfortable home. Got a cow. I am a trucker and gardener. I live close to the great resorting ground near Clear lake. If you know of any woman that is lonely, a good housekeeper and all right other ways that you think I could get, please send her address. A friend of mine recommended you to me as the right man to send to. I would like a woman between thirty-five and sixty years. I am a man of no bad habits, temperate and industrious. A woman would find a good home with me and a kind companion to live with. Please write soon and let me know. Hoping to hear from you soon, I close. Yours respectfully,

MET BUT DID NOTHING.

Louisville, Ky., April 6.—A perfunctory annual meeting of Southern Pacific holders was held here today. Judge Lorton having forbidden the transaction of business pending action by the federal appellate court on the appeal by minority stockholders in the injunction case, the meeting adjourned after electing Charles T. Ballard, of Louisville, as chairman. Mr. Ballard, subject to orders from the appellate court, will call the adjourned meeting at some future date. No eastern men were present today. E. H. Harrison was represented by Attorney A. P. Humphrey, of this city, and the Keene interests by A. E. Wilson, also of Louisville.

PIONEER OF THREE STATES.

Helena, Mont., April 8.—John J. Hall, aged 73, a pioneer of three states—Minnesota, Washington and Montana—is dead at his home at Jefferson. The decedent came from West Pover, Vt., to Minnesota in 1836. He removed to Washington in 1857 and was for several years interested in Congregational missions. In 1862 he came with the van guard of miners to Montana.

GRAMPUS PROVES HER VALUE.

San Francisco, April 8.—The submarine torpedo boat Grampus has demonstrated her efficiency as a vessel of war by discharging a torpedo at a range of 350 yards and striking a stationary target squarely in the center. The firing of the torpedo was a most important test of the value of the new fighting machine, and the board of naval officers that witnessed the trial was highly pleased with the result.

THREE ARE ASPHYXIATED.

New York, April 8.—Mrs. Carrie Moser, of Jersey City, was found dead in bed today, having been asphyxiated by escaping gas. Her two sons, Charles, aged 12, and Lewis, aged 8, are believed to be dying from the same cause. It is supposed that Lewis, who extinguished the light last night, did not quite shut off the gas.

E. churches at Cincinnati. He is a son of Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Hartman, of this city, and concerning the call the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, which prints a portrait of the young pastor, says:

PASS IT ON.

The True Way to Enjoy a Pleasure.

The way to enjoy a truth is to pass it on to others.

Certainly it is a pleasure after having enjoyed anything to be able to see your friends enjoy it. A lady of Key West, Fla., believes in this. She says: "I am a great believer in passing a good thing along to others and my faith in Postum Cereal Coffee is founded upon such truthful experiences that I take pleasure in passing it along to my friends.

"Coffee has had a very distressing effect upon me. I have long been a great sufferer from indigestion. Some time ago I commenced drinking canned milk with just enough tea to give it a flavor. Even this did not agree with me and when a friend of mine a few weeks ago told me what wonderful results she had gained by giving up coffee and drinking Postum I bought a package to try.

"I quit coffee and tried the Postum. Have found it delicious and nutritious.

"My appetite, which was very poor, has increased wonderfully and my indigestion has disappeared. I look forward to meal time and Postum Cereal.

"I know many people who have benefited by leaving off coffee and taking up Postum. One, a delicate elderly lady, suffering terribly from nervous headaches and other nervous troubles. She was on the verge of nervous prostration when advised to drink Postum instead of coffee, which she did with the result that her headaches have almost entirely disappeared already. Her doctor was surprised at the result and advised her to stick to Postum. She looks younger and fresher than in 10 years past." This lady also goes on to give the cases and names of half a dozen other friends. One of these is a Cuban.

"Cubans are famous coffee drinkers and this gentleman was no exception. His physician exhausted his remedies without any benefit. When it seemed he could live no longer a friend advised him to shift to Postum. He dropped coffee and took up Postum and he is now a living monument to the wonderful properties of this drink." Names furnished by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME

Are Never Without Peruna in the House for Catarrhal Diseases.

MR. AND MRS. J. O. ATKINSON, INDEPENDENCE, MO.

UNDER date of January 10, 1897, Dr. J. O. Hartman received the following letter:

"My wife had been suffering from a complication of diseases for the past 25 years. Her case had baffled the skill of some of the most noted physicians. One of her worst troubles was chronic constipation of several years' standing.

"She also was passing through that most critical period in the life of a woman—change of life. In June, 1895, I wrote to you about her case. You advised a course of Peruna and Manalin, which we at once commenced, and have to say it completely cured her. She firmly believes that she would have been dead only for these wonderful remedies.

"About the same time I wrote you about my own case of catarrh, which had been of 25 years' standing. At times I was almost past going. I commenced to use Peruna according to your instructions and continued its use for about a year, and it has completely cured me.

"Your remedies do all that you claim for them, and even more. Catarrh cannot exist where Peruna is taken according to directions. Success to you and your remedies."

Anarchist John Most has completed his term in prison and is again free, but not at liberty, let it be hoped.

If any one is disposed to doubt that Carter Harrison, of Chicago, is "the man of destiny" it is up to him to prove the contrary.

As a guarantee of good faith, if not as a precedent, the board of works might with some profit to the city, see to it that few down town alleys are cleaned.

The strike situation in Holland is to an extent proof that government ownership of railways will not prevent railway strikes, nor make them less better and inconvenient than a strike under any other circumstances.

For the fourth time Carter H. Harrison has been elected mayor of Chicago, and on this occasion after a harder fight and by vastly narrower margin than ever before. Six years ago he went in by nearly 90,000 plurality. According to the returns at hand he has this time a scant 7,000. The complicated situation makes analysis of his victory difficult. Probably it all may be reduced to the statement that he commands the vote that can be relied upon to go to the polls; and, if the cry of fraud already raised has any bottom, the crowd that can be relied upon to vote consistently and consecutively until the day is saved beyond peradventure of doubt.

In his address at the Indiana monument dedication on the Shiloh battle field General Lew Wallace improved the occasion to revive memories that would be better for being buried. In the most unequivocal language General Wallace declared that at Shiloh General Grant was surprised in utter unpreparedness for attack by Albert Sidney Johnston's assault on the union position. The Shiloh controversy has always been exceedingly bitter and even if facts of history have been tolerably well settled, opposing views have not nor ever will be so long as men involved in the difference are living. Since General Wallace himself has lived to enjoy vindication, it seems wholly ill-advised and unfortunate that he should more than two-score years after the battle, when the acrimony of the ancient dispute has fairly died out, seize occasion to revive the controversy. However, as most of the men who once had strong personal interest and personal feeling in the affair have been called from earth, General Wallace's words are not likely to provoke anew the once heated dispute.

Partisan "ripper" laws for municipalities work to the purpose only when such legislation is supplemented by co-operation of a majority of the voters in the community to be "ripped." The extra session of the Ohio legislature clamped such a measure on Cleveland in the expectation that Mayor Tom Johnson would be defeated. The latter part of the program has gone agley and Mayor Johnson goes into the mayor's office again with powers that are almost the perfection of absolutism. What a strong-minded, aggressive and skillful politician like Tom Johnson will do under the circumstances will not be a source of comfort to the republicans of Cleveland. It is no surprise that Senator Hanna is glum over the result of the Cleveland elections. There does not appear any possibility of heading off Mayor Johnson's nomination for the Ohio governorship. M. E. Ingalls, who was the fusion candidate for mayor in Cincinnati and held to be contingently the rival of Mayor Johnson, says the Cleveland man is the logical candidate of the Ohio democrats for governor and that he is for him.

The Ladies' Aid society of the South Congregational church are having entertained this afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. Sid Throckmorton, 2737 South Hoagland avenue.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Lake are at Goblesville attending the St. Joseph conference branch missionary convention. Rev. Mr. Lake deliver this address this evening, and expects to return home tomorrow.

Mrs. Henry Hunsicker and Mrs. Joe Koe, of Bluffton, have been in the city the guests of Mrs. C. C. Meyer, of West Washington street. Mrs. Meyer is recovering from the effects of a surgical operation performed several weeks ago.

A company of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Stoner last evening in honor of the forty-second birthday anniversary of Mrs. Stoner. The enjoyable gathering was a complete surprise to that lady, who received a number of handsome presents. At a late hour a four-course luncheon was served.

A large number of friends of Miss Elizabeth Neher, of Francis street, gave her a pleasant surprise by gathering at her home which in her absence they had beautifully decorated with carnations and ferns. Chief among the amusements of the evening was progressive pedro, in which Miss Lula Waldhart and Howard Mapes carried off first prizes, with Miss Anna Behl and Frank Bremer winning the consolation. This was followed by a guessing contest, in which Miss Carrie Behl and Miss Mary Schopst were awarded the prizes. A tempting luncheon was served at a late hour.

TILLMAN CASE GOES OVER UNTIL JULY

Defense Asked and Gets Postponement of Trial of Gonzales Slayer.

Columbia, S. C., April 8.—Following yesterday's indictment by the grand jury of Former Lieutenant Governor Tillman for the murder of Editor Gonzales, in this city, last January, and the fixing of today as the arraignment of the prisoner, the counsel for defense then asked for a continuance of the case until the July term of court and the request was granted. The grounds upon which the continuance was requested by the defense were the absence of two witnesses, who the defense allege, are of great importance to the case. It is stated that one of the witnesses, Captain W. J. White, is expected to testify that Mr. Gonzales went to the state house before the tragedy and inquired for Tillman, stating that he had once made Tillman "show the white feather and would do so again." The defense also claims that a Miss Roper, a trained nurse, who claims that she had heard Gonzales bitterly denounce Tillman, could not be present for testimony today.

Advocates were presented to the effect that Captain White was ill and that Miss Roper was in New York city.

The prosecution, through Solicitor Thurmond and Colonel Andrew Crawford, argued that the defense had not complied with the ruling of the court and that there was not a sufficient showing on which to ask for a continuance and that the case should go to trial.

After a full discussion, Judge Klugh rendered his decision continuing the case until next July.

The defendant came into the court room early. He was accompanied to the court room by Senator B. E. Tillman, who sat at his side during the hearing. The prisoner, who has been in jail since January, was well dressed and in good spirits, talking freely with his counsel during the progress of the hearing.

Building permits have been issued to Joseph A. Mason to build a house on Maple avenue to cost $600; Ernest E. Ehle, Masteron avenue, $1,400; August Hege, Smith street, $650.

John H. Alken and Wilmer Leonard have been appointed election commissioners.

The hot water heating company today filed their bond in the sum of $10,000 for the construction of the plant and the fulfillment of the conditions set out, after which Mayor Berghoff signed the ordinance which is now a law.

Mayor Berghoff today ordered the old agricultural implement shed, so long an eyesore to visitors to Swinney park, torn down. It has been used as a tool shed up to date, but was so unsightly that the mayor concluded it should be removed and another shed will be built in some less conspicuous place. The site of the present structure will be laid out in flower beds.

STEAMER LONG OVERDUE.

Philadelphia, April 8.—The oil steamer S. V. Luckenbach, which sailed from Sabine Pass March 21 for this city, has not been reported at the Delaware breakwater. The Luckenbach should have reached here early last week and shipping men are becoming anxious as to the fate of the vessel. They point to the fact that had her machinery become disabled she would in all probability have been sighted by some vessel sailing the same course. The tanker Roma, which sailed from Port Arthur on March 23, reached this port last week. The captain reported squally weather, but said nothing of having passed the Luckenbach. The agents of the vessel are the Sun Oil Co. She carries a crew of twenty-five men.

Sleeping Volcanoes

A thin, vapory smoke, lazily ascending from its crater may be the only visible sign of life in the sleeping volcano, but within is a raging sea of fire, molten rock and sulphurous gases. Those who make their homes in the peaceful valleys below know the danger and, though frequently warned by the rumblings and quakings, these signs of impending eruption go unheeded. They are living in fancied security when the giant awakes with deafening roars and they are lost beneath a downpour of heated rock and scalding ashes.

Thousands of blood poison sufferers are living upon a sleeping volcano, taking desperate chances, for under the Mercury and Potash treatment the external symptoms of the disease disappear, and the deluded victim is happy in the belief of a complete cure, but the fires of contagion have only been smothered in the system, and as soon as these minerals are left off will blaze up again. Occasional sores break out in the mouth, a red rash appears on the body, and these warning symptoms, if not heeded, are soon followed by fearful eruptions, sores, copper colored spots, swollen glands, loss of hair and other sickening symptoms. Mercury and Potash not only fail to cure blood poison, but cause Mercurial Rheumatism, necrosis of the bones, offensive ulcers and inflammation of the Stomach and Bowels.

The use of S. S. S. is never followed by any bad results. It cures without the slightest injury to the system. We offer $1,000.00 for proof that it contains a mineral of any description. S. S. S. is an antidote for contagious blood poison, and the only radical and permanent cure known. It destroys every atom of the virus and purifies and strengthens the blood and builds up the general health.

We will mail free our special book on Contagious Blood Poison, which gives all the symptoms of the disease with full directions for home treatment. Medical advice is furnished by our physicians without charge. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

HAVE YOU GOT RHEUMATISM?

YOU CAN BE CURED, FREE

A SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY WHICH WILL REVOLUTIONIZE THE TREATMENT OF RHEUMATISM.

It is now possible to be cured of any form of rheumatism without having your stomach turned upside down or being half choked to death and made to vomit, and every sufferer from rheumatism should welcome this new and marvelous discovery with open arms and give it an honest trial. This new remedy was discovered by John A. Smith, Milwaukee, Wis., who is generous enough to send it free to every sufferer who writes at once. It is a home treatment and will not keep you from your work.

As you know, if you've tried them, every so-called rheumatic remedy on the market today, except this genuine cure, will cause you violent stomach pains and vomiting, and some of them are so dangerous they will cause heart trouble. And the worst of it is they never cure. When a person has rheumatism the constitution is so run down that he should be very careful what he puts into his stomach.

It therefore gives me pleasure to present a remedy that will cure every form and variety of rheumatism without one single unpleasant feeling. That remedy is "GLORIA TONIC."

Before I decided to tell the world about the discovery of "Gloria Tonic" I had it tried on hospital patients, also on old and crippled persons, with perfect success. But some people never will believe anything until they know it from experience, so the best and quickest way is for you to write me that you want to be cured and I will send you a box of "Gloria Tonic" free of cost. No matter what your form of rheumatism is—acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, deforming, sciatic, neuralgia, gout, lumbago, etc.—"Gloria Tonic" will surely cure you. Do not mind if other remedies have failed you, nor mind if doctors say you are incurable. Mind no one, but write me today, sure. "Gloria Tonic" will stop those aches and pains, those inflammations and deformities, and cure you so that life will again be worth living. This offer is not for curiosity seekers, but is made to rheumatics only. To them I will send a trial box of "Gloria Tonic" free.

Never before has a remedy been so highly indorsed as "Gloria Tonic." It has been indorsed by such world-noted men as Dr. Quintero, of the University of Venezuela; Hon. E. H. Plummer, United States consul, Maracaibo; Prof. Macadam, of Surgeons' hall, Edinburgh; the famous magazine "Health," London, and a column of others.

If you are a sufferer cut this advertisement out and send it to me with your name and address plainly written, and by return mail you will receive "Gloria Tonic," and also the most elaborate book ever written on the subject of rheumatism, absolutely free. This book contains many drawings from actual life and will tell you all about your case. You get "Gloria Tonic" and this wonderful book at the same time, but free, so let me hear from you at once and soon you will be cured. Address: JOHN A. SMITH, 1904 Germania Building, Milwaukee, Wis., U. S. A.

WHY LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR LEE

Dislikes the "Alum Taste"—He Would Protect the Public Health—Strong Letters from Missouri Physicians Made His Vote Against Alum Baking Powders Imperative.

The interest of the public in what is known as the "alum fight" is wide spread. The Missouri legislature has been the great storm center of the controversy during the last few months, but the outside world has not been by any means disinterested. Every effort has been made by the "alum trust"—a combination of alum baking powder manufacturers—to repeal the law which prohibits the manufacture and sale of these articles in Missouri. The agents of the trust and the politicians seem to have carried on the controversy somewhat regardless of the interests of those who have the most at stake—the public. The repeal act failed, and the manufacture of alum baking powders in the state is still a misdemeanor.

Lt.-Gov. John A. Lee, having been criticised for voting upon a tie in the senate against the sale of alum baking powders, does not hesitate to give his reasons. In a vigorous communication to the St. Louis papers he says:

PUBLIC POISONING.

I could not only do so consistently, but conscientiously. I am the publisher, and have for years been the editor, of two trade papers in the food-product line, have studied the subject carefully and believe that I know it. I have maintained for many years that alum was a harmful and unwholesome food admixture, and voted to put a label on the cans, so that those who believe, as I do, that alum in any quantity introduced into the human stomach is a poison, can know what they are buying and eating. If we must continue to at all permit public poisoning for profit.

INJURIOUS EFFECTS.

Many seem to share my views, and especially those competent to judge. No one is so capable of estimating the effect of an article of food upon the human system as a practicing and experienced physician. They are much more competent in that respect than analytical chemists, for the physician almost daily diagnoses conditions of injurious effects of food products, while chemists give their opinions from a knowledge of probable effects. The one is theoretical, the other practical.

Knowing that this question was coming up at this session, I concluded last August to ascertain the sentiment of the physicians of Missouri on this subject. From a medical directory I selected one physician in each county who, from the information given in the directory, had graduated at a well known and reputable medical college, and usually a man of some years' practice, without any knowledge of his politics.

I wrote a circular letter to 114 physicians, there being that many counties in Missouri, asking their attention to the law, which was in effect, prohibiting the use of alum in baking powder or any other food product, and asking whether or not they thought it should be repealed.

Among many others I received the following replies, of which publication was not prohibited. Out of the entire number of replies received, only one or two vaguely stated that they thought the law should be repealed for political reasons:

OPINIONS OF PHYSICIANS.

The following replies are from physicians of Missouri, men in whose hands the lives and health of our citizens are constantly placed, and in whose judgment I have absolute confidence, and in whose honesty and sincerity I most earnestly believe:

A. M. Conway, M. D., Columbia, Mo., says, of date August 28, 1902:

"Alum is undoubtedly deleterious to the human system. Some individuals resist its effect more than others, but continued use will gradually impair the healthful functions. It is a powerful astringent, and, therefore, poisonous. I would, therefore, recommend that the law be not repealed."

T. W. Foster, M. D., Butler, Mo., under date August 27, 1902, says:

"Alum in baking powder is deleterious and harmful to the health. I would suggest that you attempt to defeat the repeal of the present law, believing it to be for the welfare and health of the people."

Carl Brockhausen, M. D., of Hermann, Mo., of date September 3, 1902, says:

"Alum is considered by all good authorities one of the mineral poisons. Its total or partial substitution for cream of tartar in baking powder is an adulteration and an injury to health, and should be prohibited by law."

D. Claiborn, M. D., Waynesville, Mo., of date September 5, 1902, says:

"The bill prohibiting the sale of alum baking powder meets my hearty approval.

"The eating of bread containing alum for a protracted time will certainly produce constipation, as well as numerous other diseases."

T. V. Baldwin, M. D., Forsyth, Mo., of date September 10, 1902, says:

"In my opinion alum in baking powder is injurious. I endorse the action of the legislature in prohibiting the admixture of alum in baking powder compounds, and trust the law will not be repealed."

J. R. Boyd, M. D., Springfield, Mo., head physician for the Modern Woodmen of America, of date November 26, 1902, says:

"In reply to your letter, received some time ago, I would say that the law should stand. Alum, even in minute doses, is an irritant to healthy tissues. Some people consume a large amount of bread, especially the poorer class of people, and they would be, from obvious reasons, the greatest sufferers. I trust that you will be able to prevent the repeal of the law."

E. C. Parish, M. D., Memphis, Mo., of date October 23, 1902, says:

"Alum, according to Potter, an editor of therapeutics and materia medica, is an astringent, coagulating albumen, stimulating muscular contraction. 'It coagulates pepsin and arrests digestion, stops peristalsis and usually causes constipation. If taken into the stomach for a length of time it will be injurious.' 'Many eminent authorities condemn its use in food. I have opposed such use of it for many years.'"

D. A. Yarnell, M. D., Versailles, Mo., of date August 26, 1902, says:

"I consider alum, if taken continuously into the system, very deleterious. It is strongly astringent and will cause atrophy, and finally almost complete obliteration of the gastric tubules, with consequent anemia and constipation. 'I consider it very unhealthful, and it should be excluded from all articles of food.'"

B. E. Finley, M. D., Charleston, Mo., of date August 28, 1902, says:

"Alum in baking powder is injurious to health, and the manufacture should be prohibited by law."

Doctor H. Bartens, Lexington, Mo., of date August 30, 1902, says:

"Any and every baking powder containing alum ought to be prohibited by law in this and every other state. Food adulteration in this country is carried on in a shameless way. Alum baking powder is poisonous."

B. M. Bradbury, M. D., Maryville, Mo., of date August 30, 1902, says:

"The law excluding alum from all articles of food should stand and not be repealed. There is no doubt that these alum compounds, when incorporated with food, are injurious."

Elton S. Smith, M. D., Stockton, Mo., of date August 29, 1902, says:

"The use of alum in baking powder or any food product is undoubtedly injurious to health, and is so considered by nearly all physicians and chemists, especially those who have investigated the subject. In my opinion its use in any article of food should be prohibited."

George M. Moore, M. D., Linn Creek, Mo., of date August 29, 1902, says:

"I am opposed to the use of alum in baking powder for several reasons. First, the local irritant effect upon the mucous membrane of the alimentary canal, stomach and intestines. Second, it causes constipation and incident ill health. Third, literature tells that it will constrict the minute blood vessels. It should not be used in food products."

J. K. Cantrell, M. D., Alton, Mo., of date August 29, 1902, says:

"No burnt alum baking powder should be on the market. I heartily endorse the present law from the fact that I know that alum baking powders are unhealthy. Alum arrests digestion, stops peristalsis and causes constipation. It also arrests secretions, especially of the mucous surfaces of the stomach. It is a gastro-intestinal irritant and should never be used in preparations of food. I think the present law is a good protection. It should not be repealed."

W. E. Bell, physician and surgeon, of Osceola, Mo., of date August 28,

1902, says:

"I am pleased to see you taking an interest in this matter of food adulteration. 'There need be no uncertainty as to alum in baking powder. When brought in contact with the mucous membrane of the stomach it produces whitening and constriction, thus obstructing the action of the gastric glands, largely stops the flow of the digestive fluids that are necessary in the digestion and assimilation of food. This is a very potent cause of the indigestion and dyspepsia so prevalent in this country. It is in its local action, not its constitutional effect, that alum does great injury. 'It is to the interest of our people that this law be not repealed.'"

J. A. B. Adcock, M. D., of Warrensburg, Mo., member of the State Board of Health, of date September 18, 1902, says:

"I think the use of alum in baking powder is running a useless risk, as a very small amount of alum taken into the system daily would be hurtful to many persons, and the law prohibiting its use works no hardship to any consumer, therefore let the law stand."

C. S. Austin, A. M., M. D., of Carrollton, Mo., of date August 30, 1902, says:

"You may quote me as being opposed to the use of alum in anything which goes into the stomach. 'The true fact in baking powder it may be infinitesimal in quantity, yet the continuous and constant use is very liable to produce irreparable structural changes and injury.'"

Doctor John W. Angle, Assistant Physician at State Hospital for Insane, Nevada, Mo., of date August 30, 1902, says:

"I am fully convinced that the adulteration of baking powder with alum or ammonia is very deleterious to the health and believe that the law prohibiting the use of alum in any food product should not be repealed. 'I stand ready to lend my aid to assist in making the law even stronger than it is.'"

"As to the toxic effect of alum, that has been known to housewives for many years back, and you will find that old grandmothers have used it in a mixture of sorghum to produce vomiting in cases of croup in children. It is very weakening, produces excess of nausea, and the reaction of the vagus nerve readily explains its irritant action on the mucous membrane of the stomach."

J. W. Hendrix, M. D., New London, Mo., of date August 28, 1902, says:

"I am forever against alum in every way as a food mixture, especially in the making of bread. It produces inflammation of the walls of the stomach and bowels, and finally, if the use is persisted in, the result will be death. Let the law stand."

Doctor J. A. McComb, Lebanon, Mo., of date October 3, 1902, says:

"I hold that commercialism is transcending its legitimate province when it, in any way, interferes in the problem of pure diet. It is ours to suggest and that of commercial people to do the bidding of conscientious chemists, physiologists, hygienists and physicians. If alum is injurious to the human system, then no consideration of cheapness has any place in the problem. 'That it is injurious has been held by the chemist, with his mortar, breaker and test tube; the physiologist, with his microscope; by the physician, with his years of experience in watching cause and effect. 'The ten physicians of Lebanon, Mo., are a unit in saying that alum is not good for use in baking powder, so you have ten opinions instead of one.'"

Doctor L. T. Hall, of Potosi, Mo., of date August 29, 1902, says:

"I am, of course, aware of the deleterious effects of alum upon the human system and the dangerous consequences attendant upon its constant and protracted use, even in small quantities, for illustration, in our daily food. It is a wise law that protects the public by prohibiting the manufacture of harmful ingredients into food products. 'It is to be hoped that no backward step will be taken along this line.'"

G. G. Bragg, M. D., Huntsville, Mo., of date August 28, 1902, says:

"I heartily approve of the bill passed in 1898 prohibiting the use of alum in baking powders. 'The phosphate and cream of tartar baking powders are much more wholesome, and even if not so cheap, when it comes to taking things into our system the best is not too good. 'I am opposed to the repeal of the law of 1898 and will do all I can to sustain same.'"

Doctor John A. Crum, of California, Mo., of date August 28, 1902, says:

"Kindly permit me to say that I am honestly satisfied with the law as it now stands for the health of the people."

G. W. Stephens, M. D., Montgomery City, Mo., of date August 28,

1902, says:

"Alum baking powders have a slow undermining action on the health of the user, vitiating the secretions, thereby starving the blood and the nerves, leading to a long train of diseases. I consider alum baking powder more harmful than strychnia, arsenic or other poisons, because they are used only for a specific time, while baking powders enter daily into use for years or life. I am anxious the law shall stand."

M. B. Chandler, M. D., West Plains, Mo., of date August 25, 1902, says:

"The use of alum in food should be strictly prohibited by law, and the law should be enforced, as alum certainly lays the foundation for most of our stomach troubles, and it certainly should be made a penitentiary offense to incorporate it in our food in any manner. The law should be enforced, not repealed."

S. Elliott Woods, M. D., Jackson, Mo., says:

"I think it would be a serious thing if the law should be repealed, as it has so much good in it and nothing bad. 'When I was a student at the St. Louis College of Pharmacy, in 1888, I made a series of tests for alum in baking powder, and its harmfulness, and wrote my thesis on that subject. 'I am a firm believer in pure and wholesome food products, and would consider it a great calamity if the restrictions were repealed. I sincerely hope that the bill will stand and not fail.'"

Ulysses G. Miller, M. D., of Union, Mo., of date August 28, 1902, says:

"Alum, when used in sufficient quantities and for a sufficient length of time, is injurious, there can be no doubt, and herein lies the danger in baking powder containing alum. Any law, therefore, prohibiting its use for such purposes is desirable. Permit me to say that you are to be commended for interesting yourself in such a laudable purpose as the prevention of food adulteration, a question in which he all are vitally interested."

Doctor William Carson, Shelbyville, Mo., of date August 28, 1902, says:

"The law of 1902, in regard to pure food, is a step in the right direction, and instead of being repealed should have more stringent amendments added, so as to preclude the possibility of having any excuse whatever for using alum in any form at all, not only in baking powder, but in bakers' bread or pastry, as it is dangerously injurious to health."

Thomas H. Egbert, M. D., of Kennett, Mo., of date August 28, 1902, says:

"Continued use of alum will cause constipation, impotency, loss of procreative power and other serious complaints. It should not be used in baking powder or bread or any food product. These letters are, as said, from Missouri physicians of education and experience. Written in the interest of no baking powder trust, but in the interest of the most sacred of all trusts, the health and happiness of the people of this state, to me, a state officer, sworn to foster and care for the happiness of the people. They are only a small number of the entire number, and such testimony is what has given me that 'alum, distaste,' not alum taste, which we have heard about. I would hang my head in shame and resign my office before I would cast a vote giving to a job lot of public poisoners for profit the right to continue to curse and afflict the people of this state with their fraudulent, deceptive, lying, poisonous preparations. I again repeat that the man who knowingly and wilfully puts upon the market poisonous and harmful food preparations is away from home every day that he is outside the walls of the penitentiary. PROUD OF ACT. When the bill to label baking powders came up as a substitute to the repeal bill I cast the deciding vote in its favor, not only to prevent the entire repeal of the measure, which was imminent and which would have been a great public calamity, but in order that the people should know what they were putting into their stomachs, and I am prouder of it than of any act that I have heretofore done in public office. I have the utmost respect and esteem for the gentlemen of the legislature and the senate who voted for the repeal bill. I look upon their action as the result of misinformation, and as a surrender to a false political hue and cry raised by a lot of Republican alum baking powder manufacturers and poisoners of Chicago and the east, who have for years regarded Missouri as the dumping ground for their infamous compounds. The reputable and respectable manufacturers of Missouri have long since discontinued making alum baking powder, and no such concern is now engaged in it in the state. I beg to assure the general public and the physicians, especially, of Missouri, who have informed me of their views and advised me, that despite abuse, misrepresentation and lies, I have been faithful to my trust and to the preservation of the public health, and that if any law which permits the use of alum in food products passes this assembly, it will provide under heavy penalty that the article shall be labeled 'alum,' so that the people will know the risk they are taking in eating it. JOHN A. LEE.

STREET PERFORMERS FORFEIT THEIR BAIL

Lillian Maples and Company Not in Court—General Police News.

The festive Lillian Maples, professional booze-fighter and long distance sprinter; Mary Patten, her running mate, and James Ratcliffe failed to show up at police court this morning when their names were called. A long envelope containing $45 of Ratcliffe's collateral answered instead and everything was beautifully lovely. The illustrious trio spilled a few buckets of lurid paint around on Columbia street yesterday before being run in and later put up cash bail for their appearance. The court assessed a fine of $5 and costs in each case, which just neatly ate up the roll.

Eugene Sullivan pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault and battery on William Volmering, notwithstanding the fact that Volmering's left eye had an awning over it of many colors. Sullivan yesterday called at an upholstering establishment where Volmering was working and there a three-cornered dispute arose over a matter of twenty cents which Volmering was accused of having charged Sullivan with swiping. William Hochstetter, who was also present, said that the plaintiff had told him that Sullivan had taken the money, which plaintiff denied. In the argument which followed the life was passed and then Sullivan started a survival of the fittest. In the mixup Volmering accumulated the black eye and Hochstetter went down and nearly out twice. Sullivan admitted to the scrap, but said he wouldn't have done it and he not been called a Har. Then the judge said the pendency would cost $5 and costs and the incident closed all except Sullivan's end of it, which will remain in working order for fifteen days.

Oliver Blystone was charged with having tapped a sewer without first having secured the necessary permit and on motion his case was continued until next Friday morning.

POLICE NOTES.

A message from Vincennes notified Superintendent Gormine that the police there had in custody a lad named Harshman, who said his home was at 2438 Thomas street, this city, and asking whether he was wanted here. John Harshman lives at the number named and said that his boy had run away three weeks ago and as far as he was concerned he might stay run away. If the lad wants to come back, well and good, his home is open for him, but he must come on his own accord and at his own expense. The Vincennes officers were notified of the elder Harshman's position.

A team of horses belonging to John Johnson ran away from the organ factory yesterday evening and was not stopped until Rietmiller's grocery on Fairfield avenue was reached. One of the horses was badly cut about the legs.

MORE TROUBLE FOR LAUGHRY.

Several days ago Mrs. Elmer Laughry had her husband arrested at Lima, O., for desertion, but he was subsequently released on account of the absence of the wife. Later he was again arrested and to the charge of wife desertion there has been added one of "short-weighting." Yesterday's Lima Republican says:

"Several days ago the services of the police were demanded to assist in the search of one Elmer Lockley, on request of the latter's wife, who came here from Fort Wayne. She claimed to have been deserted by her husband and left with the care of three small children. With the description the police had, Lockley was not hard to identify as he had three fingers missing from his right hand, and was supposed to be engaged as a huckster. It was in this business that he was found, and incidentally it adds another bunch of trouble to what his wife left for him. He was arrested by Sergeant Bacone yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock and an examination of the measures he carries for dealing out garden truck found them all to be decidedly short. He will be held pending an investigation."

NOW ONE OF THE FINEST.

The board of safety met in regular session last night and appointed a patrolman to fill the vacancy created by the promotion of William Pappert, after the resignation of Sergeant Phipps. The successful aspirant for the position was Michael J. Brennan, formerly a street car conductor and more recently employed at Keller & Braun's stone yard. He is a strapping big fellow, sound as a yearling and was supported by the very best recommendations. He will report for duty tonight and will be assigned to the night force and will travel in company with other officers until he is familiar with all the beats.

BASEBALL

The Fort Wayne grounds are assuming better looks, and that interest in the game is very keen is signified by the fact that several dozen fans constantly fringe the edges of the park, whose sole occupation is watching the groundkeeper and his men doing stunts with the shovel and hoe. There was once a man who said that labor is the sole basis of prosperity, and added that he encouraged work always; that nothing gave him so much genuine pleasure and satisfaction as seeing other people work. So it is that the fans have much satisfaction even before the first ball has been tossed. Captain Myers and those of his men who have reported today made their first appearance on the diamond this afternoon about 2 o'clock and indulged in a little practice. No hard work was done. The captain contented himself with sending the men around the field several times in running exercises to limber themselves up and the balance of the hour was put in in batting up flies, mild throwing and other kindergarten athletics. Another turn will be taken tomorrow morning and afternoon, and so gradually the men will be worked out in easy stages until the season opens. No real hard work will be done in any of the ante-season games, and the pitchers particularly will not be allowed to throw their arms off before business commences in earnest. In the games on Saturday and Sunday all the pitchers who will have reported by that time will be given a turn in the box, but it will be several weeks before the final selections will be made.

GUY L. BLAIR,
Of Birmingham, Mich., one of the Fort Wayne infielders.

SAY THEY HAVE NO CINCH.

Central League News Interchange Special.
Evansville, Ind., April 8.—The season of exhibition games in Evansville opened last week with the Chicago American league team, and considering that Comiskey's players had the benefit of much practice in the south, as compared to almost no practice at all by the locals, the latter made a showing that was very pleasing to the patrons of the game. While the White Sox won both games played here their scores were indicated by single figures and the visitors had to work hard to pull down victories. The two games left the Hoosiers very lame and sore and they went down to defeat when they met the Nashvilles, of the Southern league, in the first of a series of games. They won the second game with Nashville. These exhibition games will be the means of allowing Captain News to study his men and pick out the strongest for the regular team.

Enough games have been booked to keep the men busy until the opening of the league season on April 30, and this fact is bound to be of great advantage to the club. In this regard Evansville is leading all other clubs of the Central league. But one day last week was favorable for good ball playing and on that occasion the park was well filled with lovers of the sport. The public appetite seems ravenous for base ball and there is reason to believe that the people this year intend to give the club most generous patronage.

All this talk of Evansville having a team that is sure to win the pennant amounts to nothing. In a general way our people know what the team is liable to do when the fight for the pennant is opened, but before any definite conclusions can be reached it is necessary for the other teams to do a little playing. The people of this city would like to see the pennant come this way, but they are more anxious to see well balanced clubs all over the circuit and a fight from the very beginning. There is no demand here that the team win the pennant, but there will be trouble if the Hoosiers do not stay in the running and give Terre Haute a race for her whiskers. Humiliation at the hands of the band of Tottenots, whose shacks are located on the banks of the Wabash, would be worse than death—and we do not propose to be candidates for the graveyard this year, if we can help it.

The "fans" have already won the pennant for the coming season. It has been done in the work shop, the store, the barber shop and possibly in the Sunday school class room. It will soon be up to the players themselves. Victory means elevation of players to a high pedestal; defeat means gobs of gloom and threats to bolt the game, and then the bolters occupying front seats and saying mean things to the players. Last season the Evansville team was a "beaut." All classes of citizens grew so desperate over repeated losses of games that they organized to stay away from the game as a means of expressing displeasure, but not one of the "sore" population is remembered to have missed a single game, and when the turnstile figures were counted at the end of the season it was found that Evansville had received more paid admissions than ever before and this city led the league in point of attendance. That's the kind of losers we are down here in Evansville, where business is frequently suspended in order not to interrupt arguments on base ball.

"Chip" Hanford, last year with Milwaukee, and the season before with the Three I league, has been released by President Bement to Anderson. Hanford left for the latter place on Monday. It is said that he will captain the team and play first base and change catcher.

The Milwaukee team of the American association is here for a series of games and the result will be watched with interest. Many are claiming that the Central league will be not far behind the American association this year in playing strength.

President Bement says the prospects for the season are most encouraging. There is enthusiasm and a hustle in every city of the league and every club is as solid as a rock. He says the stories that are being published against President Mautner, of Fort Wayne, are an injustice to that gentleman. Mautner is all right, says Mr. Bement, and when the newspapers give voice to the wild stories that are floating around about the Fort Wayne magnate, they not only harm him, but also the league itself. President Bement speaks highly of every magnate in the circuit.

Jonett Meekin, who is to be chief of staff of umpires of the Central league, is here umpiring the local exhibition games and is giving satisfaction. His work thus far is very pleasing to President Bement, who has a deep interest in the umpire question, for the reason that he is the man who is to provide the decision makers.

—Netter Worthington.

NOTES.

The men who reported up to noon were:

J. R. Overmeyer, Payne, Ohio, outfielder, twenty-four years; first season in professional ball.

E. C. Bales, Montpelier, Ind., outfielder, twenty years; never played in professional company before.

Guy L. Blair, Birmingham, Mich., second baseman; looks good, but has never been in professional ball before.

J. C. Wagner, left-hand pitcher, Ossian, Ind., about twenty-two, and a promising player; first professional year.

Pearl Edmonds, pitcher, Coxville, Ind., nineteen years; independent ball player, never in professional company before.

J. L. Lindsey, Louisville, shortstop, twenty-three years; one year with Marion club and last two seasons playing independent ball.

H. F. Stout, pitcher, Laporte, twenty-three years; stands 6 feet, 3 inches, and played in the Three-I league last year with Terre Haute.

Henry G. Ostefik, Ottumwa, Iowa, twenty-one years; well formed; plays backstop and has been with western semi-professional clubs for three years.

William Belden and Hopkins, another outfielder, telegraphed that they left Cleveland this forenoon and will report this evening. There are now present ten players, including Captain Myers.

William Becker, pitcher, Louisville, Ky., twenty-four years; commenced professional ball in 1896, since which he has made good in Kentucky-Indiana league, West Virginia league, Western league and Cotton States league.

There is more interest being manifested in the game between the Fort Wayne club and the Shamrocks next Sunday than there is in the one between the Fort Wayne and the Owls, semi-professionals from Marion, who play here on Saturday. The Shamrocks have been working hard this spring and are in splendid condition, notwithstanding the early season. The new men will be anxiously and critically watched and there are many who predict that they will carry off the plum in the first game, at least. They play the same club again later in the season.

CONVICT BANNEY DEAD.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 8.—Noah Banney died yesterday in the northern Indiana prison and his body arrived here last night. He was serving a life term for a burglary. Soon after Banney was imprisoned he made a sensational confession, in which he said that he and two other convicts, "Kid" Whitney and Guy Van Tassel, undertook to rob the house of Rev. William Hinshaw at Bellville, Hendricks county, and that one of his companions killed Mrs. Hinshaw, a crime for which William Hinshaw is now serving a life sentence. He afterward said there was no truth in the story. He died without making any other confession.

THIS SHAPED BOX—NO OTHER

When the child changes from girlhood to womanhood and again later in life when the organs of the pelvic regions cease their work, there is a strain thrown upon the nervous system, that requires outside aid that there may be supplied a proper amount of additional strength and restorative power. This the Dr. A. W. Chase Nerve Pills do to a certainty by their ability to supply to the nervous system and organs afflicted, an amount of nerve strength and energy that enables them to accommodate themselves rapidly and easily to the changes taking place.

BUFFALO, N. Y.

Mrs. Julia Rowland, of No. 264 Pearl St., Buffalo, N. Y., says: "Both myself and daughter, age 17, are deeply indebted to Dr. A. W. Chase and his Nerve Pills. They certainly are a grand tonic to the nerves. I used them about a year ago, to give me the strength and vitality to go through the ordeal that usually comes to woman at change of life, and found all the nervousness, crying spells and weakness disappear in a hurry. This led me to give them to my daughter about the time she began to have the endless trouble some young girls do in early life, and the medicine acted equally as well with her. She grew strong and steady—the color became good—the languor and lassitude disappeared and she was able to go about her school duties as usual. I consider the Dr. A. W. Chase Nerve Pills unequalled as a nerve and general tonic in such cases and gladly recommend them to others who suffer in a similar manner."

NEW BANKING HOUSE OPEN FOR BUSINESS

Commercial Bank Launched
by Straus Bros. & Co., Old Ligonier Financiers.

Under the name of the Commercial bank, Straus Brothers & Co., who have for many years been prominent financiers at Ligonier, Noble county, have just opened their Fort Wayne branch in handsome quarters which have been fitted up in the New Avenue hotel block.

The firm comes to Fort Wayne with a successful business career of nearly fifty years behind it, supplied with ample capital and managed by men of the widest experience. The banking house is most handsomely fitted up, the furniture and fixtures of massive design, and the equipment first-class in every respect. Abe Ackerman, a member of the firm, is in charge of the business in this city, and Max Meyer will be the cashier. Straus Brothers & Co. are not only bankers, and hope to secure a share of the banking business in this city, but they are also extensive real estate dealers—actual buyers and sellers of farms, not merely commission agents. Within the past year the firm has handled more than 5,000 acres of Allen county land, and is responsible for much of the recent activity in the real estate market in this section.

It was in 1855 that Straus Brothers & Co. engaged in the banking business at Ligonier, and the firm has always been rated as one of the most substantial in northern Indiana, enjoying a successful business and the most complete confidence of the business community. In 1899 the firm opened the Farmers' bank at Albion, of which Mr. Ackerman has been the manager until his removal to this city. The firm will do a general banking business in Fort Wayne in addition to its handling of farm property.

15 DOCTORS GAVE HIM UP!

Blood Wine Saved Him — He Tells the Story of His Rescue from Death.

If winter has left you weak, feeble and diseased, Blood Wine will build you up and make you strong and healthy. There is not a medicine in the whole world that is as good for a run down condition as Blood Wine, because it begins at the very bottom of your trouble—the blood—and drives every particle of disease out of the system. If you are sick let your better judgment prevail regarding your treatment, stop and consider the effect of medicine on your disease. Do you want to be merely relieved—your disease scratched over the surface as it were—or do you want to go to the very bottom and get it entirely out of your system? If you will reason it out you will readily see why Blood Wine is so sure of effecting a cure. The testimonials from people cured by Blood Wine read like fairy tales, but every word of them is true—read a few of these indorsements, then draw your own conclusions. No matter what you have taken, don't give up before you try Blood Wine. 50c. a bottle

Most Wonderful Expression of Gratitude Ever Paid to Any Medicine.

When Mr. Carroll says "words fail to express"—he does not exaggerate one bit, for surely no words could express, with the full force of their meaning, this most remarkable cure effected for Mr. Carroll. Fancy a man having bowel trouble for nine months—being doctored by fifteen physicians, and operated upon by one of them who thought he had appendicitis, all without even bringing relief. Then imagine his surprise when his entire disease was checked by one bottle of "Blood Wine." Few people will appreciate this statement, for few will believe any medicine capable of performing such wonders. Yet it is true, and Mr. Carroll's appreciation knew no bounds when he was cured. So enthusiastic was he, that he came all the way to Worcester, Mass., from Michigan, to emphasize to the manufacturer of "Blood Wine" his narrow escape from the grave. Mr. Carroll is a business man of sterling integrity, whose word is as good as his bond to all who know him. This is the substance of his wonderful experience. He said:

McDONOUGH, Mich., March 3, 1903.

"Words fail to express the benefit I have received from 'Blood Wine,' and I can honestly say that except for your remedy I should not today be alive. For nine months I suffered continually from some serious stomach and bowel trouble which developed into chronic diarrhoea and threatened my life. I consulted altogether fifteen doctors in various cities, and none gave me the slightest hope or relieved my distress. I was wasting gradually away, and each day saw me weaker. Fortunately I saw Blood Wine advertised and purchased a bottle. I had little faith, but took the medicine faithfully. It worked wonders and in three days the diarrhoea ceased. In three weeks I had gained twenty-five pounds, and I have used 'Blood Wine' constantly since. I would not be without 'Blood Wine' at any cost, and I am perfectly honest when I tell the world that it saved my life."

Could Not Walk Was So Weak.

OSKIDA, N. Y., Feb. 23, 1903.

Gentlemen:—I received your letter some time ago, and I am sorry to say that I neglected to answer in regard to my sickness. I do not know as I had any sickness except complete exhaustion; I was more overworked than anything else, as I did not have strength to walk. I commenced to take Blood Wine and it gave me strength so I could continue with my work. A friend of mine can say the same thing, as she has taken six bottles and is like a new person. I can say it is a good medicine.

J. R. SICKLES.

Tiffin, Ohio, March 6, 1903.

I have been a sufferer from general debility, liver and kidney complaint, chills and fever, headache and lameness of the joints, cold hands and feet. I was a physical wreck; had been treated by some of the best doctors as could be found, and but it all availed nothing. I have spent hundreds of dollars trying to find a cure. This is a case of twenty years' standing. I got so far gone that I could not work more than six or eight hours per day, and would become perfectly exhausted. I was recommended by Messrs. Clyné & Larey to try your remedy, Blood Wine, which I am glad to state, has proved very satisfactory. I have gained strength, health, vigor, and am able to carry on my daily labor with the greatest ease. I would say that if this should reach the eyes of any sufferers from such complaints they

Was Weakened by Consumption Until She Couldn't Raise Her Arms Above
Her Head.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 8, 1903.

Gentlemen:—In August last my daughter Elsie was taken with the typhoid fever; she was in the care of two physicians for about two months, expecting her to die every day. After the fever broke, both doctors said it had left her with the consumption and that it was only a question of a few days and that they could do nothing more for her. She then could not raise her hands over her head. My wife seeing an advertisement of Blood Wine in the papers suggested that we try it, as the doctors had ceased to give her any medicine. We commenced the Blood Wine with excellent results; after taking the first bottle she got out of bed and sat in an invalid chair, and after the second bottle she came down stairs, and kept on improving right along until she had taken six bottles, and now she is as well and strong as she ever was in her life, and if you should see her you would not think there were any signs of consumption.

After being given up by the doctors to die, Blood Wine spared her life and we feel very thankful. We have been using Blood Wine in the family and have told many friends of it, and they also find that it is a grand good medicine.

Yours truly,
S. RAYNOR.

Fell Down Stairs—Disabled a Year—Could Not Walk Until He Took Blood Wine.

343 Cherry St., COLUMBIA, Pa.

Gentlemen:—On the 17th of June, 1902, I had the misfortune to fall down stairs, and was confined to my bed two months, not being able to move either knee. About October 1st a friend recommended Blood Wine to me and I got a sample bottle. I have taken eight bottles and I am pleased to say that it has restored my health, and I now enjoy better health than ever before. I can walk fairly good and am improving in my general health, and I consider Blood Wine the best medicine to build up this system of both old and young people. I cheerfully recommend it to all people thus afflicted.

It Makes The Head Clear, and the Brain Active.

CONCORD, N. H., Feb. 9, 1903.

Gentlemen:—I was about three months using one bottle of Blood Wine which I purchased at Fitch's drug store, taking it only when I was overtired or faint. Recently I have commenced to take it regularly. I have used nearly one bottle and glad to say that already am feeling its good effects. My left ear has given me a great deal of trouble in the last two years, and in fact more or less since a child. I have thought I needed to see a specialist in regard to it, but I have not done so. My ear has not troubled me in the last few days, which is remarkable. My head seems much clearer in every way and I can see more clearly. I intend to take more Blood Wine and shall always keep it in the house. I gave one bottle to my little girl about a year and a half ago, which I know built her up wonderfully. I shall improve every opportunity to recommend Blood Wine on the strength of what it has done for me and my child.

MRS. IRVING MACK.

"I had the grip and it left me a perfect wreck," says Mrs. Irving Mack, of Cambridge, Mass. "My appetite was all gone; my nerves were all unstrung. I was wasted to a skeleton. Everybody said to me, 'You look like a ghost.' I couldn't sleep. I struggled against my sufferings, despite their growing intensity, but I failed completely, and I made up my mind that unless I soon received help I must die. The medicines I took seemed to do me no good, and I was truly a pitiable object. I was white as a sheet and so weak I could hardly walk along the street without stag-ging. My friends were constantly telling me that I had consumption or some mysterious incurable disease. At length, through the blessing of Divine Providence, I heard of the discovery of a medicine which would do wonderful things. This medicine was called 'Blood Wine.' I sent for some of it and began to take it, and the result was simply marvelous. As true as I live, that medicine alone entirely cured me and made me a well woman. Lots of my neighbors who know all about it will stand by me in everything I have said. My health is now excellent, and I do my work with a light heart and a strong body. People need not talk about medicines. The medicine for all who are sick is 'Blood Wine.'"

PELLENS & POLSTER

Women's Dragging Pains

Chicago, Ill., October 2, 1902.

There is nothing of so much interest to a sick woman as getting well. I write this to sick, thoughtful women who have dragged along a weary existence not knowing which way to turn for health. I have been in this precarious condition—on today I am in perfect health, thanks to Wine of Cardui. I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groin. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain. What to try I knew not for it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. My attention was called to it by a little booklet and I decided to try it. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman. I am glad to be able to give this testimonial as I am now in perfect health.

Could Mrs. Bush have given a happier message than this to the thoughtful sufferers to whom she gives advice? What like health can bring the sufferer nearer to enjoying life? To make a sick woman well is to open almost every door of blessing and privilege to her—the blessing of having children in her barren home, the privilege of taking part in the affairs of life.

Yet thousands of women are continuing to suffer without making the effort to secure health—the health that would give strength instead of weakness, vigor instead of pain, happiness instead of dejection and hope instead of despair.

If you are suffering what can be of more interest to you than the fact that Mrs. Bush was in a precarious condition, weary of existence and is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual pains, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief?

This should bring you to consider her letter seriously and to decide to give Wine of Cardui a trial.

This is not a diagnosis and a theory as to how a cure can be worked. It is a case demonstrated by this prominent Chicago woman herself.

Is there any doubt in your mind that you can be cured by Wine of Cardui the same as Mrs. Bush was cured? Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle with its quick and lasting relief soon convinces the patient she is on the road to health.

Will you secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist and start today the treatment which brings perfect health?

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

THE MARKETS

Chicago, April 8.—Wheat opened strong on higher cables and on confirmation of reports on damage to the Russian crop, May being $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ to $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ higher, at 74 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 74 $\frac{3}{4}$ ¢. There was a good demand from commission houses and local shorts and the strong tone was well maintained. May selling up to 74 $\frac{3}{4}$ ¢, after selling at 74 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ early in the session. Minneapolis and Duluth reported receipts of 162 cars, which, with local receipts of 37 cars—none of contract grade—made total receipts of 199 cars, against 219 cars last week and 82 cars a year ago.

The feature of the trading was the heavy buying by the Armour interests, that house taking large quantities of both May and July deliveries. Under this influence the market was strong the entire day and the close was near the top. May being 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ higher, at 75 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 75 $\frac{3}{4}$ ¢, after selling at 75 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢.

The strength in wheat helped corn and May opened unchanged to $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ higher, at 43 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 42 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢, and on covering the price advanced to 43 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢. A better cash demand, due to the sailing of the lake vessels, was also a strengthening factor. Local receipts were 226 cars, none of contract grade.

The close was firm, with May $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ higher, at 43 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢. Oats opened firm, in sympathy with the strength in other grains and on improvement in the cash situation. May was $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ higher, at 33 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 33 $\frac{3}{4}$ ¢, but some of the early gain was lost during the first hour and the market steadied around 33 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 33 $\frac{3}{4}$ ¢. The receipts were 169 cars.

The strength in grain and a small advance in prices of hogs caused firmness in provisions at the start. May pork being 10 to 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ higher, at \$17.70 to \$17.72 $\frac{1}{2}$. May lard was up $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢, at \$9.87 $\frac{1}{2}$, and ribs were unchanged at \$9.70. Trading was very light and featureless and prices fluctuated within a narrow range.

The Close.

Prices at the close were as follows:
Wheat—May, 75 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 75 $\frac{3}{4}$ ¢; July, 71 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ to 71 $\frac{3}{4}$ ¢; Sept., 68 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 69 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢.
Corn—April, 43 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; May, 43 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; July, 43 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 43 $\frac{3}{4}$ ¢; Sept., 43 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢.
Oats—April, 33 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; May, 33 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; July, 30 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; Sept., 27 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 27 $\frac{3}{4}$ ¢.
Pork—May, \$17.80; July, \$17.72 $\frac{1}{2}$; Sept., \$16.95.
Lard—May, \$9.85; July, \$9.77 $\frac{1}{2}$; Sept., \$9.77 $\frac{1}{2}$.
Ribs—May, $9.70; July, $9.60; Sept., $9.55.
Rye—May, 50¢; July, 50¢.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, April 8.—Trading showed some hesitation at the outset, the higher London market having a sustaining effect on some of the international stocks. Weakness, however, was shown by some of the specialties, but the general movement of prices either way was exceedingly narrow. Southern Pacific sold at from 55 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 56 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ on the transfer of 3,000 shares, compared with 55 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ yesterday's closing. There was a block of 2,000 shares of Steel preferred at unchanged quotations, while 4,000 of the common sold at from 35 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 35 $\frac{3}{4}$ ¢, a gain of $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢. Moderate purchases caused a steadier tone and there was a small fractional advance to above last night. St. Paul, New York Central, Pennsylvania, Reading, Baltimore and Ohio and U. S. Steel stocks were most benefited by the demand. Traders sold Amalgamated freely when it crossed 94 and it reacted 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 62 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢, causing the general list to sag. Advances were quite generally wiped out and consolidated gas, St. Louis and San Francisco and St. Louis Southwestern preferred lost 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢, and General Electric and Biscuit 2 each. Southern Pacific was supported throughout and held firmly at 56.

There was a languid recovery except for good gains established by a few stocks. Sugar's advance reached 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢. Manhattan and Colorado Fuel 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ and St. Paul, New York Central and Union Pacific preferred a point. Butterick Publishing company gained 2. There were losses by Northwestern of 3 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢, Third Avenue 2 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢, Virginia-iron 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ and Evansville and Terre Haute and Metropolitan Street railway a point. U. S. Steel new 5's were sold down to 83 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ on the curb, with a rally to 84 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢. Prices of stocks receded a fraction again before noon.

Bonds were steady at noon. Amalgamated relapsed to 62 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ before there was any indication of support. The market in general was not much affected by the liquidation in Amalgamated, its weakness serving rather more to check buying than to cause sales. Consolidated Gas turned an early loss of a point into a rise of 3, while General Electric fell 4 points in all.

The market maintained a firm tone, although business was almost at a standstill. Amalgamated met support, St. Louis Southwestern preferred rallied 2 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ and Northwestern 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢. There was a sale of Philadelphia company at 30, compared with the preceding sale in July, 1901, at 104. Laclede Gas preferred dropped 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢, Virginia-iron 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ and Chicago Great Western preferred 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢.

The market was inclined to sag, but the movement was extremely narrow in the active leaders. Chicago Great Western preferred A rallied 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ and General Electric 2. The reaction ran in Consolidated Gas to 2 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢, Metropolitan Street railway 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ and Baltimore, Brooklyn Transit a point. There was a loss for Schloss-Shofield Steel preferred of 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢, Chicago Union Traction 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢, Cleveland, C. C. & St. Louis 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ and the Chicago Terminal stocks, Iowa Central preferred and American Woolen a point.

The market hardened again, but closed firm and intensely dull.

New York Produce Market.

New York, April 8.—Butter—Receipts, 1,208 packages; market firm; state dairy, 17¢ to 27¢; extra creamery, 29¢; held creamery, 15¢ to 26¢; creamery, common to choice, 13¢ to 23 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢.
Cheese—Receipts, 1,501 packages; market firm; state full cream, small colored, fancy full made, 15¢; small white, fancy full made, 14 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; large colored, fancy full made, 14 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 14 $\frac{3}{4}$ ¢; large white, fancy full made, 14 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ to 14 $\frac{3}{4}$ ¢.

Avoiding The Risks

DR. LINDLEY'S GOLDEN REMEDY

RESTORES Perfect Health.

It Builds Up—Does Not Break Down—
Through the Nervous System It Acts on Every Organ Whose Vitality is Impaired.

THIS IS ITS WORK:

Golden Cure Co., Hammond, Ind.
Gentlemen:—While your representative was in our city I called upon him and received from him a bottle of your "Golden Remedy." For a long time I had not been able to sleep on account of excessive nervousness. The least sound would so disturb me that I was almost worn out for want of rest. I also suffered from severe nervous headaches. After taking the first dose of your cure I have slept well, my headaches have disappeared and I am feeling in good condition. I do not wish to send any flattering letters—what I say I mean, and will say the same at any or all times. I will also say that my daughter, who is at college in this city, has taken the cure for nervousness, caused by over-study, and we can highly recommend it to anyone for the cure of that trouble. The "Golden Remedy" will be in the future, at all times, among our assortment of household cures. Wishing you the greatest success, which I am sure you cannot fail to have, I am, Very truly yours,
HARVEY H. WOODWORTH.

Railroad Men Find a Ghost.

Employees of the Cincinnati, Richmond and Muncie railroad, who are making an excavation near Deer Creek hill, three miles south of Marion, say they have seen a ghost. A large steam shovel with which they are working is said to have unearthed a skeleton, thought to be that of a woman. Since that time the workmen say they have seen the form of a woman dressed in white, and have heard her scream and groan.

Mr. Bevelheimer's Condition.

The condition of Daniel Bevelheimer who was stricken with paralysis at the Fairfield avenue safety gates a few days ago remains little changed.
He is a very sick man and his friends fear that it will be a very long time before he is able to walk about, if he ever improves to that extent. He is able to talk, but it is apparently a great effort and he rarely speaks unless in answer to some inquiry.

Most Thorough Cleansing

Compressed Air Used to Take all the Dirt Out of Your Carpet

PAUL E. WOLF

Started in the Carpet Cleaning business eighteen years ago. The methods then employed were crude compared with those in vogue now; but even then were better than the back-breaking task of beating a carpet on a clothesline. Each year Mr. Wolf has added improvements to his plant, studying the meanwhile the science of carpet cleaning, and this spring he is ready to announce that he has just placed in his factory, at the corner of Canal and Liberty streets, a full complement of machinery for cleaning carpets with compressed air.

NO POSSIBILITY OF INJURING CARPETS WITH THIS PROCESS.

A point that is important in the cleaning of valuable carpets, Persian, Wilton, and other fine makes of rugs. Compressed Air system also cleans furniture infested with moths.

NOTE.—Mr. George Walker has been employed by Mr. Wolf for twenty years. He is an expert in the laying and refitting of carpets, and all work done by him will be found satisfactory in every way.

SHE LIKES THE KAISER.

Copenhagen, April 8.—It has been learned that the German emperor, during his recent stay here, accomplished much in the direction of overcoming the strong antipathy of the dowager empress of Russia towards Germany. This is said to have been one of the objects of the emperor's visit, as he hopes through the dowager empress to influence the czar and secure a close understanding between Russia and Germany. Emperor William's marked attention to her father, King Christian, made a deep impression on the dowager empress, who was heard to remark: "If all Germans were like the emperor, I would be a friend of Germany."

The Place to Buy Your Coal

I am ready to take orders for your next winter's coal. Hard coal and Pokahontas. The summer time is the time to prepare your next winter's fuel for several reasons: You can buy it cheaper, and second, is you give the coal dealer time to put your coal in your bins, and third place, is you have got your coal in when winter comes and you don't have to run to the coal yard when the coal man is busy, that he cannot wait on you. AND ONE GREAT REASON IS YOU KNOW what the gas company has told you, that for next winter you must prepare other fuel, and don't be deceived and wait till cold weather comes and strikes come on—the way to avoid all trouble is to put your coal in when we can take care of you, and one other great point is when you buy in the summer you get better coal.

The rumor is among local agents that they are not allowed to solicit orders as there is going to be a great deal of early coal bought this year, as the people are not going to be fooled this time as they were last year. They are going to get their coal and they will know they have got it.

This demand is going to make coal scarce and high. Don't wait till coal goes, and you cannot get it, but buy when you can buy right and at the low prices. These prices hold good till the 1st of June. Call up the Wilding Coal yard. Phone No. 6265.
